Special Term. We wish to call the parties. JUDGE DUER-You are right in proceeding as at Special Term, but if the other party asks an appeal, I shall, from my present impressions, suspend the de-cision, and refer to General Term, and there will be a delay of two or three weeks more, while, if the counsel will consent to the plan, the proposed argument can be proceeded with at once, and judgement pronounced on Saturday next.

Mesers. O'Connor and Bosworth made some further

JUDGE BOSWORTH-If I had any doubt at all as to the right of party to appeal and doubt that it could be beard, before judgment at General Term, I might hes-inte; but the Code, I find, gives an appeal to every party where it affects a substantial right.

Mr. Van Buren said this

Van Buren said this dors not affect a substantial right. It is a question of contempt.

Jopes Bosworn-The amendment of the Code says an appeal shall be made when it affects a substan-tial right, and where the question is in regard to a person being sent to prison it seems to me to affect a sub-

Mr. Van Buren made one or two remarks, when lodge Duer said it has been decided that the case will not be heard first at General Term. If counsel consent that the judgment of Special Term shall be entered, and appeal made forthwith to General Term, it will prerest delay. If the other mode is taken, the first argument will be on the validity of the order, then on the merits, and the whole matter gone over again; while in the case proposed, the judgment of Special Term will d instanter by the General Term, and the case can be at once taken up.

Mr. O'Conor made a few other remarks, as did Mr.

Judge Duer said the case is now before the Special Term, and if the counsel should move to have it transferred to the General Term, with my present impressions, I would sllow it.

Mr. Brosson suggested that, before deciding, there should be an appeal; it shall be entered on the minutes that plaintif excepted to the appeal, and it was denied, Judge Duer thought that was right. Mr. O'Conor asked why right? Why should a technicality be allowed to the gentlemen to trip up our heels, when none has been allowed us to trip up theirs.

Judge Duer said it would have no such effect ; unless the counsel could agree between themselves the case must now be considered as at Special Term, and afterward a motion heard to carry it to General Term. Mr. Field said the case is already at General Term, having been so ordered on Saturday last. The Judge said, on finding the order to be void, the recognizances were taken for Special Term.

Argument was presented on the question of appeal. Mr. Brosson contending that where an insult has been offered to a Court it has the exclusive power to punish that insult—and in this case the same as if one of this andience were to insult the Court it has the right to bring him up and punish him. Mr. O'Conor thought this case different from that of a party present insulting the Court—this being a complaint in relation to pecuniary matters, and he contended that the whole question for the Court was as to the pecuniary damage sustained by plaintiffs and if only nominal as in this case, imprisonment cannot be imposed, except until the fine, or extent of damage and costs are paid.

The punishment for contempt, it was said, was fine not exceeding $250 and imprisonment not exceeding six months—one or both—and to pay a plaintiff's damages and costs—and an indictment could also be preferred afterward.

The Judge thought the power of imprisonment lay whether the damage was merely nominal or not. Mr. O'C. thought otherwise.

The Judge ordered the names to be called as at the special term, which was done, and most of the memers answered. The reading of the interrogatories and answers were then commenced [substantialy as al-ceady published.] A question arose, on reading the answers of Ald. Sturtevant in which, with the others, he declines to answer the interrogatory as to whether he voted on the resolution censuring the Court, as to whether he should not be required to answer-the Judge and Mr. Bronson considering that the resolution went to show the case and the measure of contempt, while Mr. O'Conor thought that Ald. S. having ackpowledged he voted in relation to the grant with a knowledge of the injunction is all that the plaintiffs can claim, and they have no right to inquire as to any other

This and one or two other points, after further ar gament, it was finally directed by the Court should be escreed until Tuesday next for decision at which time the counsel will be present, and the various parties under attachment to appear again on Saturday next. The Court then adjourned.

A slight fire occurred in one of the parfore of the Metropolitan Hotel on Saturday night, but it was very soon extinguished by the watchmen and other employes of the house, without danger and almost without slarm. The firemen were on band and laid their hose, but no water was put on except from the hose in the house, of which there is abundance on each floor, always ready for instant use. The house is as near fire proof as possible, the space under the floors being filled with mortar and other indestructible materials and it would be almost impossible to get a fire well under way, for want of fuel.

ARREST OF ESCAPED CONVICTS-CORRUP-TION ON BLACKWELL'S ISLAND .- On Saturday evening three men named Jas. O'Brien, Thos. Downing and Thos. Desmond, were arrested by Officers Rockwell and Traverse, of the Nineteenth Ward, charged with stealing two boat loads of butter and beef, from the premises of Mr. Henry D. Caldwell, at Ravenswood, L. I. It appears that on Saturday afternoon these men hired boats at the foot of Forty-eighth-st., East River, with which they crossed over to Ravenswood, where they perpetrated the larceny. On their way back one of the boats sank and the other was taken in charge by the Police. A notorious fellow named Wm. Sparks alias Bill Bunk, was with them, but escaped. The Po lice are requested to keep a lookout for him. It appears further that Downing and Desmond are escaped convicts from the Penitentiary at Blackwell's Island. where they had been sent by Justice Stuart about three weeks since as prowling night thieves, for the term of two months. Downing states that he was told by one of the Keepers, that if they could raise 83 each they would be let go. On the strength of this promise Downing sent to John O'Brien, father of James O'Brien, one of the accused, for the money, and soon after Bet sey, a daughter of John O'Brien, brought $3 to him. e gave this sum to Mr. ---, and was permitted to leave in the ferry boat.

This statement, Justice Smart says, may or may not be true, but it is notorious that, by some means or other, great numbers of prisoners find their way from the island long before their terms expire. Downing says he can substantiate his statement; and the Magistrate intends investigating the truth of the charges contained in it. The three prisoners were locked up.

BREAKING UP OF A LOTTERY .- On Saturday last Justice Welsh took a complaint against Chas. Miller and E. Helger, alleged President and Secretary of the "Newark Manufacturing Union," a company formed for the estensible purpose of disposing of many thousand dollars worth of cabinet ware, clocks, plano-fortes and other articles. The complaint is made by Mr. Courad Werbstein, of No. 150j Broome-st., who acted as agent for the Company, and sold shares at 50 cents each to a very considerable amount. According to the printed circulars of the Company, a whole collection of which were found in possession of the accused, Miller, the Company was regularly chartered by the Legislature of New-Jersey, and the lottery was so arranged that none of the partice interested in it could draw blanks. Miller was arrested and is in prison. Heiger will appear and give bail.

RIOT AMONG FIREMEN.-About 34 o'clock yesterday morning, a disgraceful riot occurred in Grand st , at the junction of East Broadway, in which Engine Companies Nos. 6 and 44 were engaged. The members of No. 44 railied and returned the assault Capt. Russell, of the Thirteenth Ward Police, with a number of his men, hastened to the spot and succeeded in quelling the disturbance. SECONDAY, RallRoad.

Gerard Stuyvesant agt. Denton Pearsell, Joseph C. Skaden, Abraham B. Rapelye, Wm. L. Hall, Richard T. Milligan, Charles Miller, Daniel J. Sherwood, Abram Allea and Henry Griford (grantees,) and the Mayor, Aldermen and Commensalty of the City of New-York.

Motion for injunction to restrain defendants from proceeding in the construction of the Second-av. Rallroad. An order was granted for the grantees, &c., to show cause why an injunction should not time.

Mr. Stuyvesant complains on his own behalf and that of all other owners on the line of the projected road. He sets forth, as in the case of the cotspisiant as to the Broadway Railroad, the enormous increase of taxes, which he attributes to the wasteful neglect and expenditure of the Common Council and its agents—states that resolutions were passed giving to defendants the privilege of constructing a railroad commencing in Second-av. at Forty-eccond-st. down Second-av. to and through Termity of the Army to Chatham et acrose Chatham-st to and through the Bowery to Chatham et acrose Chatham-st to and through Front to Peck slip—returning brough Pearl, Chatham. This complained that a grant of immense lucrative advan-inge has been given to individuals without any conditions, but the right of the street given forever, even beyond the centrol of the Common Council itself, which the Common Council had no right to give, and the grant is therefore void. It is also alleged, that if the Common Council had the right to authorize a railroad, its duty, according to the trust confided to its members, instead of giving it to a few men, believed in most instances, not to be men of means, and the grant, in reality, not intended for their benefit but that of others, that the Corporation should have but the rails itself or should have set up the right to construct it to be higher believed in either of which cases, many thousands of dollars would have been secured to the City, to assist in paying its current expenses.

Feb 14, after passing a multitude of Railroad and other local or private bills; one useful bill in relation to the State debt became a law. There are three taxes levied on the State, one of 2 mills for State purposes, one of 2 mills for paying the principal on the State debt, and one of 15 miles for paying the interest. The first mentioned taxes yield a surplus of some $100,000 over the demands of the object for which it was designed, and the auditor proposed that it either be reduced or applied to the entinguishment of the State debt. In accordance with this suggestion a law of which the following is syncp-is was passed.

See 1. Any surplus revenue in the Treasury whether derived from taxes, sale of lands, or any other source, shall be applied to the purchase of any recognized dobt of the State, bearing interest.

Sec. 2 Invests the Governor with power to apply surplus funds, not exceeding $30,000 each warrant, according to the lat section.

Sec. 3. Provides for a statement of the stock purchased.
